

Waltz for Debbie “gone and out”

Waltz for Debbie released their debut album “Gone and out” in the year 2000. Their sound is dancey, sometimes exceptionally catchy, sometimes melancholic, popmusic in the vain of Dubstar, Everything But The Girl or Saint Etienne.

Martin Permer is writing most of the songs while Annica Lundbäck is using her mesmerizing voice to complete their music.

The 2nd single from “Gone and out” was “Once upon a time”. A particularly haunting popsong which was heard daily for months on Swedish radio. 10 top-position-weeks on P3's charts!

International labels have now taken a big interest in Waltz for Debbie. Licensing deals have already been reached in the Philippines, Japan, USA and Spain.
